Clerk Rebecca Anderson had spoken with Dan Young and Rodney Jantzen last week and it appears the dog barking issue is resolved. He also stated this issue had been going on for a number of years before Mrs. Young called the township back in 2009. He felt the ordinance is what finally made Mr. Jantzen step up and address the issue.

The board revised the Ordinance for Animal Control and will adopt that amended policy at the January 26th meeting.
