Carlos Creek Winery ALASD connect update: Tyler Bredeson was not at the meeting, however, Bill Krivanek had learned the winery had not yet been connected. This most likely will not happen until March, so the board will look for him to attend a meeting then.

Zoning: Nothing to report.

Committee Report: Dwayne Waldorf noted there will be a public hearing on February 8th at 4:30 on expansion of the district at the Public Works building. Generators were also purchased to cover lift stations to eliminate power outages.

Bill Krivanek had received a text from Scott Taylor indicating he has all but one invoice for the damage done to his home for the sewer backup last July. The board will need all invoices and is expecting to see them at the next meeting- if he has them.

Bill Krivanek also presented the board with an estimate for parcels, if the ALASD does expand the district. Some of the areas may be dropped. He will vote to pursue government funding, without committing to include any of the areas in the township.

No other old business or road issues discussed.

Treasurer's report: Tammy Schwegel was absent, therefore, Clerk Rebecca Anderson presented the financial report for December 31, 2022 which will also be end of year figures. Bill Krivanek moved to approve the report with a second by Dwayne Waldorf. The motion carried unanimously.
